TRAINER'S BACKGROUND

Jackson Ng holds a master's degree from the University Of Southern Queensland (USQ) specialising in Human Resource Management. He is a Certified Professional Trainer, an international qualification he achieved from International Professional Managers Association (IPMA, UK). He is also a professional member of Malaysian Association of Professional Speakers (MAPS). Today, he is the master trainer at Master Trainers Consulting and Coaching Sdn Bhd. He is also the approved vendor and trainer for HRD Corp Train The Trainer Certification Program.

His passion is to help new/seasoned trainers to understand the mechanics of designing, developing, delivering and assessing participants competency in their training. Jackson has created many opportunities for his graduates to get additional coaching, mentorship and speaking opportunities. Since 2018, Jackson has successfully trained more than 700 HRDF certified trainers. Some are already doing well as a full time professional trainer in their respective industries.

Since 1997, he has spoken to more than 100,000 audiences from many walks of lives – from students to bosses, government servants, SMEs, MNCs, private organisations, retirees and most importantly, professional speakers and trainers.

Jackson Ng earned the title of The 2002 Asia Pacific Speech Champion when he represented Malaysia in Asia Pacific Speaking Competition (Area B), one of the main events under the 52nd Junior Chamber International Asia Pacific Conference (JCI-ASPAC) in Japan. Prior to that, he had won more than 30 speech contests at Junior Chamber Malaysia conventions and Toastmasters International platforms combined.

He has written 3 popular books, You Are A Masterpiece No Matter How Broken You Are, The New You and Speak with Impact to Any Audience. His 20 years of experiences in entrepreneurship, management, teaching, training, counselling, sales and marketing provide him the credibility and unique advantage to bring out the best in the participants.
